The Latino Coalition Applauds President Biden’s Nomination of Anna Gomez to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC)

WASHINGTON, DC - The Latino Coalition, a leading advocate for Latino-owned, small, and mid-sized businesses, applauds the nomination of Anna Gomez to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). TLC Chairwoman Jeanette Prenger, made the following statement:

“We applaud President Biden’s nomination of Anna Gomez to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). We are confident that her wealth of experience and expertise provides firsthand knowledge in telecommunications which makes her extremely well-qualified and poised to be an effective Commissioner on the Federal Communications Commission,” Prenger said. “Anna’s vision and leadership will help the future prosperity and economic well-being of this nation. The Latino Coalition fully supports Ms. Gomez’s appointment and look forward to continued collaboration in support of Hispanic representation with the Administration.”

ABOUT THE LATINO COALITION- The Latino Coalition (TLC) was founded in 1995 by a group of Hispanic business owners from across the country to research and develop policies relevant to Latinos. TLC is a non-profit nationwide organization with offices in California, Washington, DC and Mexico. Established to address policy issues that directly affect the wellbeing of Hispanics in the United States, TLC’s agenda is to develop initiatives and partnerships that will foster economic equivalency and enhance overall business, economic and social development for Latinos.
